give it a try you'd be surprised how effective this concealer is.
it's for people with early loss adls who are mostly physically intact but who have problems with decision making and knowing what's safe and not safe to do.
smaller doses are generally used for this purpose, and they often take effect more quickly.