but if the gop wants people to listen to its ideas, it needs to start by showing them it understands the problems those ideas are supposed to be trying to solve.
there is currently insufficient evidence to support the routine use of bisphosphonates as adjuvant treatment for patients with ebc